One of the most delightful receptions of the season was that tendered a large number of her friends by Mrs. J. E. Frazier, 1000 Benton boulevard, in honor of her husband's birthday at the Overall Studio, 2116 Woodland avenue. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and about sixty of Kansas City's prominent young people were in attendance. On a beautiful decorated table in the reception room was the birthday cake decorated with thirty-seven vari-colored candles which when lighted made a beautiful picture. Delicious punch was served throughout the evening and dancing was generally indulged in by those present. An elegant luncheon of chicken salad, bread and butter sandwiches, strawberries and whipped cream and Cafe Noir was served at a late hour. Miss Maxie throughout the evening.
